

Mr. Luqman Ahmad is the Deputy Secretary General (Macro), Ministry of Economy, Malaysia. Appointed on 7 February 2023, his current portfolios include formulating development policies and strategies in macroeconomics, services and manufacturing industries, knowledge economy, science and technology, environmental economics, planning for the allocation of development expenditures as well as overseeing coordination efforts on sustainable development goals (SDGs).

Mr. Luqman has extensive expertise in governance and administration attained from 29 years of professional career as a government official. He started his career as an Administrative and Diplomatic Officer in the Ministry of Agriculture from 1993 to 2007. Subsequently he served the Economic Planning Unit, Prime Minister's Department for 15 years (since 2008), holding various positions related to economic analysis and forecasting, public finance management and budgeting as well as economic development specifically on human capital development. In 2017, he was appointed as the Director of Economic Council Secretariat before being elevated as the Director of Human Capital Development Division Ministry of Economic Affairs in February 2020 until February 2023.

Mr. Luqman holds a degree in Political Science from University of Texas at Arlington, USA (1991), Diploma in Public Administration from National Institute of Public Administration in 1995 and Master of Economics from the National University of Malaysia in 2007.