

Elmar Mammadov holds a master's degree in International Affairs from the Geneva Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies (IHEID), a master's degree in Legal Regulation of the Economy from the Academy of Public Administration under the President of the Republic of Azerbaijan, and a bachelor's degree in Public and Municipal Administration from the Baku Institute of Social Administration and Political Sciences. He is an experienced diplomat who held various positions in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs from 2001 to 2017. During this time, he served as a trade diplomat at the Permanent Mission of the Republic of Azerbaijan to the UN Office and other International organizations in Geneva, as well as at the Embassies of Azerbaijan in Switzerland and France. Following his tenure in the Ministry, he worked as a senior adviser responsible for a green agenda in the Administration of the President of the Republic of Azerbaijan from 2017 to 2024. Currently, he leads the economic cooperation department at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and is a co-leader of the COP29 Presidency's Action Agenda Team, overseeing global and regional initiatives.